BRACON

Aragon is built to be safe, reliable and seaworthy. Performance sport is at her core but she is equally proud of the cruising comfort she offers.

Versatile and lightweight, Aragon weighs just 53 tons and is built to perform in light Mediterranean breezes and take on the open seas with ease.

Thanks to advanced construction techniques, an outstanding design and racing equipment, Aragon assures exciting and comfortable sailing in any weather conditions.

A highly qualified multilingual crew is trained to meet the most exclusive guest's needs. Amazing sailing, fascinating anchorages and tasteful cuisine experiences.

Mutual privacy and dedicated spaces are some of the key elements for a happy cruise.
The Italian flair of Southern Wind and of Nauta Design lies behind the simplicity and the elegance of Aragon look.
A warm atmosphere and smooth functionality make guests feel home.
